GME TOKEN: Join the discussion about the teaser contract/coin that was launched in a post by u/SamBradfordSuperFan.

A Castle of Glass: The content in this explosive DD by u/3for100Specials is nearly as amazing as the story behind it. This new work was built upon the shoulders of a 3 part series titled 'Where Are The Shares' by u/leavemeanon who subsequently deleted their profile. A new account was created Wednesday under the name u/leavemeanon2 who offered a mysterious response about deleting their account. The Glass Castle is shattering and OP offers a theory of everything.

Inflation Alert: Take a look at the latest inflation numbers from around the world with u/Dismal-Jellyfish as J-POW admits that it will remain high and the Fed continues to crank the money printer.

Peter Hann Retraction: Investment portfolio manager Peter Hannn was forced to retract his statements regarding Citadel. Read the original post that was dug up by u/WingzTTV and the retraction statement, along with a snarky response on Twitter from u/dlauer.

New Rules & J.P. Morgan: Intraday checks are coming and new rules DTC-2021-002 and SR-NSCC-2021-801 may be working their magic. u/npham54 ties it all together with J.P. Morgan checking SLD requirements.

More Rules: There were 3 other new rules that passed Wednesday and a discussion on them can be found in a post by u/llamaste-to-you.

SUPERSTONK GUIDE VOL. 1 COMPLETE TRANSITION FROM DAILY NEWS TO WEEKLY UPDATE

I'm Zedinstead and I'm retarded. I created this publication for one reason: to bring this already amazing community even closer together. Over the last month, I have spent an unsustainable number of hours building this in an attempt to recognize apes of all different skills for their contributions to this subreddit and it has taught me a number of things I want to share with you.

First, apes numbers be legion, they come from a vast diversity of talents, and all of them share a common interest in one perfect stock. From wrinkle brains to masters of the meme, many have found a role to fill and are dedicated to it. This brings me to my second point: perseverance. I can stay retarded longer than they can stay solvent and it sure seems as if that mentality persists across the community. The last thing I wanted to share is that despite the drama or the constant attack from shills, the community is overall very healthy. The DD appears to be going through more rigorous peer-review processes and the comment sections, even in new, seem more friendly.

The first volume of SuperStonk Guide is now complete and you can expect a whole new format coming on a weekly basis with more memes and bigger floors. Pumping these out on a daily basis is unachievable long-term and creatively this will allow me to explore some fun ideas I have about the direction of the magazine. Thank you for subscribing and all your work towards making this the greatest sub on reddit, no matter how big or small the contribution. BUY, HODL, MEME.
